Magna Carta: Enduring Legacy 1215-2015

An ABA Exhibition Curated by the Library of Congress

Magna Charta Cum Statutis Angliae
(Great Charter with English Statutes)

Please join us as we welcome this year's Law Clerks with a Special Opportunity to see Magna Carta: Enduring Legacy 1215-2015: An American Bar Association Exhibition Curated by the Library of Congress which is back in Boston for a short engagement sponsored by the American Bar Association and curated by the Library of Congress.

The ABA Standing Committee on the Law Library of Congress is collaborating with the Law Library of Congress to present a traveling exhibit to raise awareness about Magna Carta and celebrate its enduring legacy. The traveling exhibit is an integral part of the world-wide observations of the 1215 sealing of Magna Carta. Your support of the traveling exhibit will help expose the historical and contemporary relevance of Magna Carta to communities all across the country as it travels for years to come.
